Learning Sequence
Why remember?	I can remember a happy event and explain how I felt. I can begin to link how I felt to how a person of faith will feel as they worship.
Why do people celebrate religious events?	I know why Sikh people celebrate Bandi Chhor. I know why Muslim people celebrate Ramadan and Eid. I understand why Buddhist people celebrate Vesak.
What happens at a named religious celebration or festival?	I understand the significance of Mary in the Nativity Story. I understand why we celebrate and remember the Epiphany.
Who takes part in a festival and why?	I understand why Christmas is important for Christian people. I understand why Jewish people celebrate Pesach (Passover).

What actions or rituals are performed at a celebration or remembrance?	I understand the significance of the phrase: 'We will remember them.' I understand why we stop and have two minutes of silence in the Remembrance ceremony.
What do different religious celebrations or remembrances have in common?	I can compare two religious festivals. I can use a Venn diagram model to demonstrate the similarities and differences.
How might a believer feel a sense of belonging when participating in a festival or a ritual?	I can discuss how I feel at a celebration with friends and family to how a believer will feel at a celebration or festival in their place of worship. I can answer: Will belonging to a faith feel the same as belonging to a family?
How do faith members use symbols and artefacts within their celebrations and how might this affect the way they behave or feel?	I can begin to understand and recognise the symbols for different religions. I understand the artefacts used in the celebration of Diwali, particularly the Diwali lamp. I can understand the significance of the cross in Christianity and how Christians feel about this.
